He retired in his apparent, usual good health but shortly his wife noticed a gurgling sound and upon investigation, he failed to speak and seemed to be unconscious. The much alarmed woman ran to near neighbors and summoned a physician, who was near at hand. Upon his arrival the good man was dead.

> Rev. Smith was a man of great faith and consecration and was much beloved by the people of the little city, among whom he had lived for a number of years. He leaves a wife and several children who deeply mourn his death.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. W. Swander, of Portland, at 2 p.m., Friday. The deceased will be interred at Spokane. Washington.
